

Chicago Apartment Moving Checklist

Moving apartments in Chicago? We've all been there. Here's a checklist everything you'll need to think about when moving. Good luck!

- |                                                           |                                                              |
|-----------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------|
| <input type="radio"/> Notify your landlord                | <input type="radio"/> Select top neighborhoods               |
| <input type="radio"/> Talk to an expert Real Estate Agent | <input type="radio"/> Set your monthly budget                |
| <input type="radio"/> Identify CTA concerns and stops     | <input type="radio"/> Demand list (parking, dishwasher, etc) |

Move Out

- |                                             |                                                             |
|---------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------|
| <input type="radio"/> Different size boxes  | <input type="radio"/> Box tape                              |
| <input type="radio"/> Thick Marker          | <input type="radio"/> Rent a Uhaul or moving company        |
| <input type="radio"/> Reserve elevator out  | <input type="radio"/> Cancel all utilities                  |
| <input type="radio"/> Cancel internet/cable | <input type="radio"/> Find a parking space for moving truck |
| <input type="radio"/> Drop off cable boxes  |                                                             |

Move In

- |                                                           |                                                             |
|-----------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------|
| <input type="radio"/> Oder internet/cable 1-2 weeks early | <input type="radio"/> Call all utilities                    |
| <input type="radio"/> Reserve elevator in                 | <input type="radio"/> Find a parking space for moving truck |
| <input type="radio"/> Check if unit is clean              | <input type="radio"/> Drop off moving van                   |

