Visist Stockholm's summertime hotspots

As a country in Scandinavia, Stockholm has blissful summer nights with an eerie light that feels like dusk. Below are some great bars/clubs/restuarants to enjoy the unique evening experience outdoors.

- [ ] Mosebacke Terrace in Södermalm - if you want a hip terrace, this is your spot. Here you get some of the best views, fun people-watching, and great Swedish drinks & food.
- [ ] Mälarpaviljongen in Kungsholmen - popular waterside bar & restaurant, complete with a floating dock & live music
- [ ] Orangeriet in Kungsholmen - a place to both eat & drink, this tropical oasis is lined with wooden floors, terra cotta pots, colorful flowers, and lots of greenery.
- [ ] Josefina in Djurgården - offers a spacious outdoor drinking area complete with sofas and a killer view
- [ ] Nosh and Chow in Östermalm - a year round beer garden that is popular among both locals and tourists, with noteworthy cocktails.
- [ ] Piren in Kungsholmen - located in an up-and-coming area near many new bars & restaurants along the waterfront. Fun for bar-hopping later!
- [ ] Pharmarium in Gamla Stan - this spot stands in place of the first Swedish pharmacy, and offers a terrace with a view of old town. They specialize in craft cocktails and small plate menu items.
- [ ] Berns in Östermalm - a huge space hosting multiple clubs and bars inside of a 19th century building. Best part is quite possibly the outdoor balcony and terrace.
- [ ] Trädgården in Södermalm - this bar/club offers fun drinking sports, live music, & various music rooms for different dance taste
