Master guide of To Do's in Florence, Italy

- [ ] Climb to the top of the Duomo
- [ ] Rub the nose of the Fontana del Porcellino for good luck
- [ ] Take a leisure walk through the Boboli Gardens
- [ ] Visit the Officina Profumo Farmaceutica di Santa Maria Novella to find your own specialized perfume
- [ ] Watch the sunset over the Arno and Ponte Vecchio Bridge
- [ ] Shop for a bargain at San Lorenzo leather market
- [ ] Pay a visit to the Statue of David at the Galleria dell'Accademia
- [ ] Visit an artisan workshop (book tour here: https://goo.gl/p7pVZ3)
- [ ] Enjoy an Opera at St. Mark's Anglican Church
- [ ] Visit the Uffizi Gallery
- [ ] Have lunch at Mercato Centrale's indoor food market on the top floor
- [ ] Feel uber Italian by enjoying a mid-day espresso standing up at a cafe bar. (Hint: Italians don't call them espressos, but rather a "cafe normale")
- [ ] Eat a Lampredetto Sandwich, a Florentine delicacy!
- [ ] Dine 'al fresco' (enjoy a restaurant meal outside in the crisp fresh air)
- [ ] Take a pasta-making class
- [ ] Chose to try the classic Bistecca Fiorentina dish when dining out
- [ ] Pick a Chianti Classico off the wine menu
- [ ] Order insanely fresh pastries late at night. Check out this secret night bakery: https://goo.gl/gqPMxN

- [ ] Of course, eat Gelato. Lots and lots of Gelato.

Make and Share Free Checklists
checkli.com