Chicago Spring Bucket List 2018 (Not For Tourist Edition)

Spring is finally here! After what has felt like a really long winter, here are some things you can look forward to doing in the city this spring season.

- [ ] Go to Cubs opening day on April 9th
- [ ] Be one of the first to eat at Smoke Daddy, Big Star, or enjoy a spiked milkshake at West Town Bakery at the new Zachary Hotel in Wrigley.
- [ ] Enjoy your first drink of the season on your favorite patio or on the Riverwalk
- [ ] Visit Jackson Park and see the cherry blossoms
- [ ] After going to Jackson Park stop by Stony Island Arts Bank to see their amazing library
- [ ] Plan a donut tour around the city (walk to each location) https://goo.gl/AZRCnf
- [ ] Walk or bike the lakefront to or from downtown
- [ ] Get tickets to the Chicago Flower & Garden Show at Navy
- [ ] Go to Baconfest the weekend of April 6th
- [ ] Enjoy cocktails on your favorite rooftop or try a new rooftop https://goo.gl/b6hgSH
- [ ] Dine at the new The Lakefront Restaurant and maybe even a show at Theater on the Lake
- [ ] Attend a spring wine festival https://goo.gl/RyFtcQ
- [ ] Spend Saturday morning at the farmer's market starting May 13th
- [ ] Plan a Chicago Shopping Tour and shop for your spring wardrobe https://goo.gl/G223Qs
- [ ] See the tulips along Michigan Avenue
- [ ] Enjoy a picnic in the park or along the lakefront

- [ ] Take your dog to the dog beach at Montrose Beach
- [ ] Visit a local flower shop in Chicago and treat yourself to some spring flowers