

Digital Camera Shopping

Before you buy a digital camera, it's also important to do your homework. There are so many models on the market at so many different price points that it can be confusing, so creating a camera shopping checklist will be time very well spent.

- ☐ Figure out how you'll use the camera
- ☐ Figure out what kinds of prints you'll make
- ☐ Figure out what size of camera you want
- ☐ Learn the jargon
- ☐ Figure out how you'll connect.
- ☐ Be honest about your photography experience level
- ☐ Try various models.
- ☐ Make friends with the salesperson
- ☐ Compare prices
- ☐ Figure out warranty and return information
