Remote Jobs That Pay A Steady Income

Do you want to work from home? Check out this HUGE list of work-at-home jobs. There are remote, telecommuting, and freelance gigs for writers, virtual assistants, nurses, sales reps, call agents, customer service reps, transcribers, teachers, and many more positions!

Step 1: Choose Your Niche

- [ ] Before you start choosing a domain name and theme, you need to figure out what topics your blog is going to cover. What are you going to write about on a regular basis?

Step 2: Setup Your Hosting Account

- [ ] When I set up my hosting account, there were so many steps involved. I had to decide between a Linux or Windows account, then there was the whole separate c-panel, and FTP, that I was totally lost.

Step 3: Select Which Hosting Plan You Want

- [ ] With Bluehost, there are three hosting options to choose from, Basic for $2.95/month, or Plus or Prime for $5.45/month

Step 4: Choose Your Domain Name

- [ ] When you choose a domain name you'll want to follow three simple rules:
  - [ ] Keep it simple. Refrain from words that are hard to spell or remember.
  - [ ] Use a dot.com – .com is what most people remember when typing in a web address.
  - [ ] Beware of words with multiple spellings: example: to, two, or too.

Step 5: Pay for Your Hosting Package

- [ ] After you have your account created, you'll be directed to a page where you need to select your hosting package.

Step 6: Install WordPress

- [ ] The awesome thing about Bluehost is they make installing WordPress a snap! No tech background needed.

Step 7: Make it Pretty

- [ ] Now, you may be wondering if it's difficult to navigate WordPress and I can tell you from experience it's not. If you can navigate around a Word Document — you'll be just fine.

Step 8: Marketing Your Blog

- [ ] Before you can start making money from your blog, you need to market it — basically, let people know about it. Here are some of the most popular methods for getting traffic and marketing your new blog
  - [ ] Email Marketing
  - [ ] SEO
  - [ ] Social Media

Step 9: Making Money From Your Blog

- [ ] There are so many ways to earn money from your blog, from direct ad sales and ad networks to affiliate marketing and digital earning

Make and Share Free Checklists
checkli.com